During the six months, Ruder Finn & Rotman was engaged in the following activities on behalf of the Thailand Board of Investment.

Letters and background material were sent to executives who had attended events during the electronics missions held in June.

A mission targeted to the fabricated metal products and machinery industries was held in November. Investment luncheons, sponsored by U.S. banking and private institutions, were held in six cities. Information kits were prepared and mailed to all those who expressed an interest in Thailand's investment opportunities. Interviews with the trade and daily press were conducted.

RF&R held weekly meetings with the BOI representatives in New York.

A mini-mission targeting the jewelry industry was undertaken. U.S. manufacturers who might wish to set up production facilities in Thailand or to enter into joint venture operations in Thailand were approached by letter, by phone and in person. Activities centered around the Jewelers of America trade show in New York from February 2-5.

Trips to Thailand for two journalists from trade magazines were arranged.

A trip to Thailand for U.S. manufacturers of jewelry and metal products is being arranged for May.

RF&R provided editorial service for a newsletter and an article that will appear in World Journal.

Planning is now taking place for an agro-business mission to the U.S. in June.
